

Weekly Newsletter

HAPPY MONDAY SNOW DAY :)

The Innocence Club is pleased to be sponsoring a book sale of “The Sun Does Shine” by Anthony Ray Hinton, an exoneree who served 30 years on death row for a crime he did not commit and will be speaking to all SHS students on February 9th. The money raised will be for the Equal Justice Initiative, the non-profit organization that helped set him free.

<https://www.bronxriverbooks.com/book/9781250309471>

Scarsdale High School’s Dance Company that is made up of a dedicated group of dancers -- some who have experience and some who do not. They meet 2X/week for right now...on MONDAYS and TUESDAYS at 3:30 pm. New members are always welcome and they are starting a new dance on Monday, February 1st. Email jwang21@scarsdaleschools.org, mzilberstein22@scarsdaleschools.org, or mbryant@scarsdaleschools.org for more information!

Senior class government is having a trivia month! The first night is this Tuesday, February 2 over zoom. Check out their instagram @shsclassof21_ for more information.
