

Second Grade Spring Assessment Rubric

	Proficient	Developing	Needs Reinforcement
Major Under-standings	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student can independently define (oral, written) rural, urban and suburban community • Definitions include detailed understanding of each community with many examples • Student can independently define (oral, written) goods and services and wants and needs • Definitions include detailed understanding of each with examples MAIN IDEA/DETAILS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student can independently define (oral, written) two of three communities (rural, urban and suburban community) • Definitions includes partial understanding of each community with some examples • Students can independently define some vocabulary: goods and services and wants and needs • Definitions includes partial understanding of each with some examples 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student can independently define (oral, written) minimal understanding of the three communities (rural, urban and suburban community) Definition includes minimal, vague description of the community with little or inaccurate examples Student can define limited vocabulary: wants needs, goods and services Definition includes minimal, vague description of each with little or inaccurate examples
Geography	Student is able to independently demonstrate knowledge of how suburban, urban and rural communities are influenced by geography (Examples: location, terrain, proximity to water, climate) INFERRING	Student is able to independently demonstrate some knowledge of how suburban, urban and rural communities are influenced by geography (Examples: location, terrain, proximity to water, climate)	Student independently demonstrates minimal knowledge of how suburban, urban and rural communities are influenced by geography (Examples: location, terrain, proximity to water, climate)

	Student understands the importance of location of structures, buildings and services within each community INFERRING	Student has some understanding of the importance of location of structures, buildings and services within each community	Student has minimal understanding of the importance of location of structures, buildings and services within each community
Compare/ Contrast	Students can independently compare and contrast the similarities and differences among rural, urban and suburban communities with specific examples using key vocabulary Note: SEE KEY CHARACTERISTICS/ VOCABULARY CHART Skills: CATEGORIZING/COMPARING/C ONTRASTING	Students can independently compare and contrast some of the similarities and differences among rural, urban and suburban communities with general examples Note: SEE KEY CHARACTERISTICS CHART	Students independently demonstrates minimal ability to compare and contrast the similarities and differences among rural, urban and suburban communities with little or inaccurate examples Note: SEE KEY CHARACTERISTICS CHART
Synthesizing	Students, orally or in writing, can independently describe which community they would like to live with specific examples using key vocabulary Example: Postcard, Persuasive letter, Paragraph	Students, orally or in writing, can independently describe which community they would like to live with general examples using some key vocabulary	Students, orally or in writing, can minimally describe which community they would like to live in using limited or inaccurate examples

